

The Bridgeton Pioneer

Published every Thursday morning, at No. 10 North Laurel street.
This paper is entered as Second-Class Matter, N. J., as second-class matter.

GEO. W. McCOWAN, Editor.

Bridgeton, N. J., March 7, 1901.

NEARBY PLACES.

Stems Gathered in the Villages Adjacent to the County Seat.

Cedarville.

Cedarville, March 1.—Mrs. H. N. Powell and daughter Jessie, left for their new home in Cape May yesterday.
Mrs. John Davis has been visiting her parents D. Simpkins and wife.
John Gandy moved in the house yesterday lately vacated by H. N. Powell.
Columbus Ogden has been entertaining his daughter from out of town.
Ice dealer A. J. Ogden is packing ice along the shore in case of necessity. Mr. Ogden expects to have plenty of ice to furnish the community.
Mrs. Richard Bennett spent yesterday out of town.
Capt. Mahlon Harker has been spending a few days in Port Norris.
Joe Riley has moved on his newly purchased farm lately vacated by Add. Hankins.

Mrs. Harvey James is suffering from relapse and is in a precarious condition.
Mrs. Fred Mayhew is numbered among the sick.
Mrs. W. P. Glanden has returned from a visit in Woodbury.

Cedarville, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Sarah Vanaman spent yesterday out of town.

While Osborn Powell was coasting down hill yesterday, his foot became entangled in the wheel and he received a severe fall.
A handsome new sign adorns the front of H. B. James' store.
Two salvation ladies were in town yesterday begging for self denial money.
Wm. Hall moved in the house yesterday lately vacated by Add. Smith.

High Blizard has left for another load of corn from Delaware.
Cedarville, March 4.—Dr. Joseph Husted, of Layton, spent yesterday with his parents.

Miss Clara Ewan spent Saturday and Sunday with Gertrude Miller, of Jones Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cosler, of Newport, were calling on their uncle, Phenix Cosler yesterday.

Wm. Powell, of Halesville, spent yesterday with Wm. Peterson.

Mrs. Albert Mulford returned home Saturday after several weeks spent at her daughter's.

Howard Jenkins is able to be out again after a severe illness.

Robt. Bateman, an oyster shipper, at Bivalve, was brought home sick Friday with lumbago, and is not gaining much.

William Stevens, of Cape May, spent Sunday with his family here.

Mrs. Charles Johnson, Sr., is numbered among the sick.

Cedarville, Feb. 5.—Frank Mayhew, of Philadelphia, has been spending a few days with his parents.

Nelson Fox, of Bridgeton, has been visiting his uncle Benj. Ewan.

Mrs. Walter Schaffer is entertaining her father from Millville.

James Mayhew is a gripe sufferer.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church meets at the home of Miss Rhoda Mulford Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Mary Statham and Lizzie Garrison attended the dedicatory services on Sunday in Bridgeton.

Miss Carrie Powell left for her new home in Cape May, after a visit among her many friends.

Cottage prayer meetings are to be held three nights in a week at the different homes, beginning to night at Miss Rhoda Mulford's, and held there for the first three nights.

Misses Maude and Marian Kenny, of Newport, have been visiting Mrs. W. P. Glanden.

Mrs. Hildreth Waddington is numbered among the sick.

Cedarville, March 6.—Walter Lummis attended the inauguration at Washington.

Miss Katie Clark attended a funeral in Bridgeton, yesterday.

Miss Lillian Mayhew spent yesterday out of town.

A change is to take place at the station the last of the week when a new agent will take up the reins.

Judson Camm, of Bridgeton, was in town yesterday.

Roy Sheppard of Perth Amboy, will move here in the near future.

Mrs. Dayton Riley spent yesterday out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cosler, of Newport, were here yesterday.

Fairton.

Fairton, Feb. 27.—Charles Swartz has moved in the house vacated by Swartz.

Miss Nora Woodruff has returned home after spending a few days in Camden.

Mrs. Harry Buck is on the sick list.

Clarence Camm and wife spent Sunday in Cedarville.

Miss Jennie Stratten, of Bridgeton, is a guest at her sister's Mrs. Kelsey Moore.

Mrs. Wm. Blew, of Atlantic City, is spending sometime with her father, Seth Husted who is very sick.

Alvah Eldridge and wife, of Millville, spent Sunday at Edwin Taylor's.

Mrs. Robert Brandt and children, are visiting in Elmer.

Timothy Campbell was so unfortunate as to lose his pocket book on the Port Norris train Saturday evening containing quite a sum of money.

Mrs. Byron Clark spent yesterday in Dutch Neck.

Mrs. Mary Johnson and daughter Hilda of Ocean City, are guests at McKeeper Hinton's.

Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Bert Hill were Bridgeton visitors yesterday.

Miss Bertha Mills is attending the wholesale millinery openings in Philadelphia.

Walter Clement is spending a few days in New port.

Frank Conner has returned to Philadelphia, after spending a few days in our village.

Fred Harris and wife, of Bridgeton, called on friends last evening.

Fairton, March 4.—M. N. Hartz, of Philadelphia, was a guest at Jacob Franz on Saturday.

Revival meetings will continue in the Back Neck School house this week.

Miss Anna Rithwell Stewart, Field Secretary of the Young Women's Branch of the National W. C. T. U., will give a lecture in the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Rev. Wm. Adams will leave for Camden on Wednesday morning to attend conference.

Mrs. Edward Tomlin and son, of Tuckahoe, visited Byron Clark's on Friday.

While driving through our village on Sunday, Mr. Yugel's horse became frightened at the trolley and turned short to go up Railroad avenue; the wheels struck the bridge, breaking two wheels of the buggy. The horse was stopped at once. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Miss Susie Willis is on the sick list.

Messrs. Wm. Allen and Benj. Carter attended the funeral of a relative in Glassboro, on Monday.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the M. E. church Sunday morning. Twenty eight converts joined church on probation.

Deerfield.

Deerfield, March 1.—Mrs. Henry Coleman, of Bridgeton, is visiting her mother Mrs. Davis.

An unusual large number were present at the W. C. T. U. social, held at the chapel on Tuesday evening. The program was very interesting. Miss Goodwin, of Greenwich gave a very good and helpful address, after which cake and coffee were served, and a good social time was indulged in.

Mrs. Bert Sayres and daughters Miss Mary and Elsie are spending a few days with her parents.

Mrs. Tillie Glaspey and Miss Goodwin, of Greenwiche, were the guests of Mrs. Maggie Ware, on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Clara Clark is visiting her cousin Miss Norma Ivins.

Jacob Ott killed his porkers on Monday.

Mrs. Beale and daughter Elva, spent Tuesday at Edward Caspers.

The Farmers' held their meeting Wednesday afternoon and adjourned to meet on election night.

There is to be an entertainment in the M. E. church on Election night. Stereoptican views on "Ben Hur" will be given.

Mrs. J. M. Clark and children and Miss Grace Kelly, of Norma, were visitors here on Tuesday.

Miss Belle Flanagan was calling on friends in our village, Thursday evening. David Cassidy is very bad sick.

Mrs. Lizzie Cobb entertained friends on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harvey spent a day at her mother's recently.

Miss Ida Seabrook and Charles Seabrook are visitors in the city.

Miss Gertrude Rachor has returned home from Newark.

Mrs. Kate VanLeer had a rag sewing Thursday, those present had a very enjoyable time.

Samuel Morris, of Seelye, will be buried in the Presbyterian cemetery on Friday morning.

Leonard Parvin and wife are going to move to Boston.

Harry Ware and wife will move on the Ben Coleman property on March 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Padgett and Mrs. Hattie Franklin spent Sunday at E. R. Parvins.

The Friesburg Lutheran church will hold their prayer meeting at Jacob Beals' on Friday evening.

Mrs. Jennie Jagers and Miss Belle Flannigan took dinner at Mrs. E. O. Leakes on Wednesday.

Master Melvin and Howard and Miss Mary Mixner, of Beebe Run, were in this place on Tuesday.

The choral class met on Friday evening with Mrs. Anna Tice as accompanist.

Mrs. D. I. Camp, Mrs. Emily Woodruff, Miss Belle Flanagan and Miss Lydia Moore will meet on Friday afternoon to arrange W. C. T. U. topics.

Port Norris.

Port Norris, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Albert Garrison, of Dividing Creek, was the guest of Mrs. David Lake yesterday.

Miss Bertha Berry is enjoying a visit at Millville.

Miss Cora Riley, of Rosenhayn is spending sometime with Mrs. Oliver Riley, on Main St.

The Ladies' Masonic Link had a little set out and social time in the lodge room Tuesday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Wolfe has been confined to the house with a bad cold for two or three days. Edmund Morris is teaching in her place.

William Peace is on a business trip to Philadelphia.

Wesley Banks was visiting Manumusk in Wednesday.

There is a great deal of talk about the trolley coming here from Bridgeton. The people are quite anxious to have it by summer.

George Lucas, of Bivalve, who has been ill for so long, died yesterday morning sitting in his chair.

Mrs. Myra Newcomb is in Bridgeton today.

Port Norris, March 2.—Miss Ida Hand is in Philadelphia today.

Mrs. Frances Lake has been confined to the house all the week with rheumatism.

Mrs. Joseph Wilson returned to Dorchester yesterday, after quite a visit with her daughter here.

Mrs. Smith Campbell, of Dividing Creek was calling on friends here Friday.

Prof. Harry Broadwater, of Woodbury is home for a few days.

Mrs. P. G. Reading, wife of the eminent Dr. Reading, of Woodbury, has been the guest of Mrs. E. J. Davis, of the Davis House.

Walter Morgan, of Bridgeton, was in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hand left this morning for Philadelphia.

The Red Men had a set out last evening in the lodge room.

We were very glad to learn Capt. Ethel Lore and family, of Millville, are going to move back as soon as the weather moderates sufficiently.

Much sympathy is felt for the family of Alonzo Chester. Mr. Chester has been ill for several years and yesterday he buried one of their daughters. The J. O. U. A. M.'s, kindly remembered them Thursday evening with a nice sum of money.

Port Norris, Mar. 6.—Isaac B. Reeves left Saturday for Mays Landing where his mother is quite ill.

Harvey Hand is spending a week with friends in Camden and Philadelphia.

Ray Bacon, of New York, is home during the illness of his father.

Prof. Chester Ogden, of Fairton, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.

James Morris has been entertaining Frank T. Lane, of New Haven, Conn.

George Grissman, of Bridgeton, was a guest of George Lloyd over Sunday.

John Owens is visiting Dorchester today.

Miss Sallie Ferguson, who has been spending three months with her sister in Red Bank, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walling is stopping with her parents for awhile.

Miss Clarissa Watson spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Mauriceveto.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conahay went to Philadelphia this morning.

Port Norris, March 5.—A. A. Williams was down yesterday, securing subscriptions to the North American.

Mrs. Margaret Galloway was shopping in Philadelphia, Monday.

Mrs. Samuel B. Fagan spent Monday with relatives in Bricksboro.

J. D. Collins, of Collingswood, and Frank Baxter, of Westville, were in town last night.

Dr. Moore, of Bridgeton, made a business trip here.

Rev. Charles F. Downs leaves this morning to attend the Conference in Camden.

Mrs. S. J. Dillabey opened her poud store under the K. of P. Hall yesterday. This will be quite an accommodation to the people, as it is more central.

One family of the gypsies left yesterday for New York.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will hold an entertainment in their hall Thursday evening March 7th at 7.30 o'clock. Proceeds to help pay the mortgage on the hall. Admission, adults 15c, children 10c.

Newport.

Newport, March 5.—Mrs. Henry Smith has returned home from visiting friends in Fairton.

Dr. A. R. Judson is convalescent.

Mrs. Hannah Robbins, who has been quite ill, is slowly improving.

The Daughters of Liberty held a banquet in their rooms last evening, in honor of its first anniversary. One hundred invited guests responded and a good time was enjoyed by all. A short program was given consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and short addresses by Revs. Kulp and Hahn, and E. O. Compton, after which a treat was given. Much credit is due Misses Elnes and Wood, and Mrs. William Calise, who had the matter in charge.

Mrs. George Cawman has returned from a short stay out of town.

Miss Edith Gaskill, who has been quite sick, is convalescent.

Shiloh.

Shiloh, March 1.—Mrs. George Bonham, of Bridgeton, spent a day this week in this village.

Warren Harris, has gone to Washington, D. C.

Deacon Bonham and wife expect to move back to their home in the spring.

William Bivins, and daughter, Miss Eva, of Rosenhayn, are visiting Mrs. E. Bivins.

John Doibow moved into C. W. West's house Thursday.

Eathen Swinney has put a telephone between Dolbow's and Joe Bowen's. Mr. Dolbow is assisted in all his work by Mr. Dolbow, and the phone will be a great convenience.

Mrs. James Estel has returned to her home in New York State.

Miss Kizzie Cook has been entertaining company from out of town.

H. Wells Davis entertained his Sunday School class at his home on Thursday evening.

Miss Rebecca MacPherson died at the home of Charles Fisher, Wednesday night. Interment in Shiloh Cemetery Sunday. Miss MacPherson was a sister to Mrs. Ann West, who recently met with such a horrible death by fire.

Mrs. Maggie Swinney has returned from a several weeks' visit in Philadelphia.

Charles White has lost a valuable horse.

The W. C. T. U. expect to have a lecture here one week from to-night.

The Davis-Sheppard nuptials were quietly performed Friday. The happy couple left for Washington, D. C.

Chas. Fithian has been shaking hands with friends in Hopewell this week. Mr. Fithian is running for Freeholder.

Boys attend to your lamp, your oil, your gait and keep off the side walk! The remonstrance with its many signers was of little avail except to add a few more miles to the vote of speed allowed.

One of our bright boys coming into the Post Office (where an elderly lady was awaiting the stage), and seeing the porous plaster agent's satchel covered with ads., and not seeing the agent himself, said bright boy thought the lady's satchel was the victim of some bad boys, but the joke was on him.

Shiloh, Dec. 5.—Miss Edith Swinney, a school teacher from Delaware, is spending a week here arranging for the welcome of her parents, Dr. Curtis O. Swinney and wife, who are to reside in the house vacated by John Dolbow.

Miss Ida Shimp has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. C. Ewing.

Miss Elizabeth P. Sheppard was here from the Northern part of Jersey to attend the wedding of her sister.

Mrs. Walter P. Kain and Mrs. John Rainear, of Bridgeton, were suddenly called to the bedside of their mother, Mrs. George Hummel, who is seriously ill, having been stricken with paralysis Sunday.

Many out of town people were in attendance at the drama in the Hall Saturday night. The Marlboro orchestra furnished music. Mrs. Winchester Bonham plays the organ in the absence of Miss Lizzie Fisher, who is in Arkansas.

George Laning, of Bridgeton, was hired to take the place of Mr. Hurff.

Mrs. Lizzie Young is spending a few weeks in Greenwiche.

Edw. Ayars has moved on Hiram Davis farm and Ward Glaspey has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Ayars.

Miss Lizzie Wander, of Salem, has been visiting her sister Mrs. Joseph Howard.

Miss Anna Dixon spent the Sabbath with her parents.

Mrs. George Hummel Sr. died Monday night.

Mrs. P. S. Reeves and Mrs. Thomas B. nnet have been entertaining company from out of town.

Wilbert Hummel and family, expect to spend a year in Virginia.

Auley C. Davis has moved into Wm. Hummel's house.

Dr. G. M. Paulin is to have a sale of personal property, Thursday, March 14. Lou Schable, Ash Lawrence, Fred Yeagle and wife and Lottie Stanley, of Salem, were in town Sunday.

Rev. E. B. Saunders took for his text Sabbath morning, Romans 12: 2 and gave a most powerful and timely discourse. A Temperance lecture in the church Sabbath night.

Dr. Fogg and Tomlinson still have several patients in this section.

A pretty wedding took place at noon, Friday, March first, at the residence of Mrs. Smith Sheppard, when her daughter Miss Alice was united in marriage to Harold C. Davis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Brennamis, of the Presbyterian church at Obello, assisted by Rev. E. B. Saunders. The bride was charmingly attired in a silk gown and carried roses. Oletha Acton, niece of the bride acted as flower girl. Mr. Davis has held an important position in the store of S. V. Davis for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on the 3 o'clock train for Washington, D. C., on their return they will reside in the house formerly occupied by Miss Lucy Davis. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Report of Primary meeting in Hope well township March 1st. Charles Richmond re-elected for freeholder, 121 votes; Township Com., Edward Perry, 119 votes; Commissioner of Appeal, P. L. Wheaton; Surveyor of Highway, Lunell Glaspey and R. M. Ayars; Overseer of Poor, J. S. Ayars; Constable Harry McDonough; $2400.00, for use of roads; $2.50 per day, for hauling; $3.00, for plowing and scraping; $1.50, for shoveling.

Newton B. Shimp will move on the farm owned by his uncle B. S. Dixon.

E. C. Ewing killed 7 fine porkers Monday and Henry Ewing killed 6.

Chautauque circle meets on Thursday night with Misses Mary and Ida Davis. Responses about current events. Miss Mary will give a reading from Robert Brownings poems.

W. O. Garrison is having great quantities of cord wood taken from the woodland recently purchased near here.

C. O. Swinney's goods arrived Friday. Ralph Davis and Lenard Smalley, are new ushers in the church.

The Ladies' Aid meet with Mrs. Hiram Davis.

Cottage prayer meeting at Deacon Ayars'.

C. E. meeting was held immediately after Sabbath School on account of the entertainment in the Hall.

DIED.

MORRIS—In Seelye, N. J., Feb. 26, 1901, Samuel Morris, aged 64 years.

LUCAS—At Bivalve, N. J., Feb. 27th, 1901, George F. Lucas, aged 83 years.

HAYWOOD.—In this city, Feb. 28th, 1901, George A. Haywood, aged 35 years.

BOON.—In this city, March 2, 1901, Rebecca, widow of the late Samuel Boon.

GARRISON—Near Silver, N. J., March 2nd, 1901, Edward D. Garrison, aged 66 years.

MACPHERSON—Near Shiloh, N. J., Feb. 28th, 1901, Miss Rebecca MacPherson, aged 65 years.

MOWERS.—In Gouldtown, N. J., Feb. 27, 1901, Elizabeth, wife of Philip Mowers, aged 78 years.

KIRK.—In this city, Feb. 27, 1901, Carrie B. wife of Samuel P. Kirk, and daughter of Ethelbert D. and Mary E. Compton, aged 31 years.

AYARS.—In Shiloh, March 5th, 1901, Samuel J. Ayars, aged 81 years.

HUMMEL.—At Shiloh, N. J., March 5, Louisa, wife of George Hummel, aged 68 years.

SORDEN.—At Hazehurst, Pa., March 4, 1901, George, son of George and Lizzie Sorden, aged 12 years.

PLATTS.—In this city, March 4, 1901, Susanna M. widow of the late Daniel Platts, in the 56th year of her age.

Notice to Creditors.

ESTATE OF JOSEPH A. WOODRUFF, DECEASED.
PURSUANT to the order of Frank C. Bray, Surrogate of the County of Cumberland, made on the thirteenth day of Nov. 1900, on application of the undersigned, Executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the decedent to bring in their debts, demands and claims against his estate, under oath, within nine months from the date of such order, or they will be forever barred of any action against the said Executors.

Dated Nov. 13, 1900.
RUTH H. WOODRUFF,
SAMUEL A. LANING,
FLORENCE FRALINGER,
Executors.

THE CUMBERLAND TRUST CO.,
of Bridgeton,
Executor.

WANTED!
Reliable man for manager of Branch Office we wish to open in this vicinity. If your record is O. K. here is an opportunity. Kindly give good reference when writing.

THE A. T. MORRIS WHOLESALE HOUSE,
Cincinnati, Ohio.
Illustrated Catalogue 4 cts. stamps.] 2-5-19.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY virtue of a writ of fieri facias to me directed by the Court of Chancery, New Jersey, will be exposed to sale at Public Vendue on Saturday, March 2nd, 1901.

between the hours of 12 and 5 o'clock to wit—at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day at

THE HOTEL CUMBERLAND,
on North Laurel street, in the City of Bridgeton, in the County of Cumberland, and State of New Jersey.

All those certain Mill Buildings, now occupied by the Pearl River Mills, together with the Boiler & engine, shafting and other means of distributing power, contained in said buildings, and all that certain lot of land wherein said buildings are erected, situate at Silver Creek, in the County of Cumberland and State of New Jersey, bounded as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a stake in the South line of Morris Avenue, the same being two hundred and twenty-five feet westward from the South West corner of Morris Avenue and Grove street as the same is shown on map of Riverside, and runs thence along the South line of said Morris Avenue one hundred feet, more or less, to the edge of the Bluff, and the end of said Avenue thence the same course continued, two hundred and seventy feet, more or less, to low water mark of Cohasset creek; thence beginning against the same high water mark, runs thence Southward at right angles to said Morris Avenue and parallel with said Grove street, and two hundred and twenty-five feet westward thence three hundred and thirteen feet and ten inches to the North line of Fourth Avenue; thence Westward along the North line of said Avenue, one hundred and sixty-one feet to a stake opposite the Southwest corner of the Machine Room; thence at right angles with said Fourth Avenue, North fifty-five feet to the intersection with the said corner of said Machine Room; thence Westward parallel with the line of said Fourth Avenue and lot five feet distant Northward thence from two hundred and twenty feet or more or less to low water mark of Cohasset creek; thence up said Creek the several courses the end and bounding on low water mark until this line intersects the first course.

Containing two and one-eighth acres, more or less.

Being the same land that was conveyed by one Tansey by Deed from Walter H. Bacon and wife dated April 8th, 1898